A WORD FROM OUR SECRETARY

By: Illustrious Brother Robert W. Thomas

In this season for giving, don't forget that Scottish Rite has some charities that will help many people. Here are some that you might consider contributing:

- Children's Dyslexia Center – Cleveland – Millions of children with dyslexia endure frustration and demoralization as they struggle to acquire skills that many of us take for granted. If your child is struggling with reading and writing, how do you know if dyslexia is the cause? Where can you go for help? (From the Supreme Council website).
- Ohio Masonic Home – A fine community where Masons, widows and others can live in a safe and clean environment.
- Grand Almoner's Fund – A disaster has happened, and you need some help to get you through, this fund is set up to do just that.
- Leon Abbott Scholarships – The Valley of Cleveland's scholarship amounts are based on the number of donations through the Blue Envelope appeal. More donations, more scholarships to award.
- White Flower Society – Is a fund dedicated to helping Masonic widows in need.

These charities are just a few in which you may donate. The others can be found on the AASR – NMJ website. If you can donate, do so. You may help a fellow member that needs it.

DYSLEXIA CENTER 2ND ANNUAL CHARITY TEXAS HOLD'EM TOURNAMENT ANOTHER SUCCESS

On Saturday November 12, 2022 the Children's Dyslexia Center-Cleveland hosted their second annual Texas Hold'em Tournament. This year we had 34 players, one more from last year. The remarkable thing is that 20 of the players did not play last year. This is evident that this is a great and fun event to raise awareness and funds for our Dyslexia Center. We need help cementing the date in everyone's schedule so we can continue to grow. The date will be the second Saturday in November.

Please hold Saturday November 11, 2023 for next year's Texas Hold'em Tournament. Please help spread the word.

Enjoy the pictures from this year's tournament. We raised over $1,500 for the Dyslexia Center. We are proud of Sublime Prince Rob Morley from LaGrange Lodge who was the only Mason to make it to the prize money. Thank you to everyone who participated in the tournament. Special thanks to Jim Huff for taking pictures, Errol Savage and Bud Cygan for helping with refreshments and clean up, and the Euclid Masonic Temple Company for allowing us to use the building. See everyone next year!
